Proxy Statement

For the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on October 14, 2003

This proxy statement is furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Casella Waste Systems, Inc. for the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, October 14, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Killington Grand Hotel, 228 East Mountain Road, Killington, Vermont 05751, including any postponements or adjournments thereof.

The notice of the annual meeting, this proxy statement, the company's annual report to stockholders for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2003 and the enclosed proxy are being mailed to stockholders on or about September 8, 2003.

Voting of Proxies

All shares held by stockholders who are entitled to vote and who are represented at the annual meeting by properly executed proxies received by the company prior to or at the annual meeting will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxy card, unless it is revoked prior to the vote. If a proxy card does not instruct the company how to vote, the shares will be voted "FOR" approval of the proposals set forth in the notice of the annual meeting to which this proxy statement is attached.

A proxy may be revoked before it is used to cast a vote. To revoke a proxy, a stockholder must:

- file with the corporate secretary of the company, at or before the taking of the vote, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy;

- duly execute a later dated proxy relating to the same shares and deliver it to the corporate secretary of the company before the taking of the vote; or
- attend the annual meeting and vote in person. Attendance at the annual meeting, if a stockholder does not vote, is not sufficient to revoke a proxy.

Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be sent to the company at the following address: Casella Waste Systems, Inc., 25 Greens Hill Lane, Rutland, Vermont 05701, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

If a stockholder indicates on a proxy that the shares should be voted "FOR" approval of the matters presented at the annual meeting, the proxy will have discretion to vote the shares on any other matters which are properly presented at the annual meeting for consideration, including a motion to adjourn the annual meeting to another time or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, unless a stockholder withholds authorization for the proxy to use his discretion.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote

The company's board of directors has fixed August 21, 2003 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting. Only holders of record of the company's voting stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. On August 21, 2003, there were 22,833,982 shares of Class A common stock, 988,200 shares of Class B common stock and 55,750 shares of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of Class A common stock entitles the record holder to one vote on each matter properly submitted for consideration at the annual meeting. Each share of Class B common stock entitles the record holder to ten votes on each matter properly submitted for consideration at the annual meeting. Each share of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock entitles the record holder to the number of votes equal to the number of whole shares of Class A common stock into which a share of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock is convertible as of the record date. As of the record date, each share of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock was entitled to 84 votes on each matter properly submitted for consideration at the annual meeting.

Votes Required

The presence, in person or by proxy, of shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the annual meeting by the holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock, voting together as a class, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Shares of common stock and preferred stock present in person or represented by proxy, including shares which abstain or do not vote with respect to one or more of the matters presented for stockholder approval, will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the annual meeting.

If a broker does not have discretionary voting authority to vote shares for which it is the holder of record as to a particular matter at the annual meeting, the shares, although they will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, cannot be voted by the broker. Accordingly, these "broker non-votes" and any abstentions would have no effect on the voting on a matter that requires the affirmative vote of a certain percentage of the votes cast on a matter, but would be the equivalent of a "no" vote on any matter which requires the affirmative vote of a certain percentage of shares entitled to vote on a matter.

The affirmative vote of the holders of shares representing at least a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares of common stock and preferred stock, voting together as a class, at the annual meeting is required for the election of each director nominee. The affirmative vote of the holders of shares representing a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares of common stock and preferred stock, voting together as a class, at the annual meeting is required for the ratification of the selection of the company's independent auditors.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table sets forth information as of August 1, 2003 regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of the company's voting stock by (a) each person or entity known by the company to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of the company's voting stock, (b) each director and director nominee of the company, (c) each of the "named executive officers" of the company, as described in the Summary Compensation Table below, and (d) the directors and executive officers of the company as a group.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and includes generally voting power and/or investment power with respect to securities. Shares of Class A common stock subject to options, warrants and/or Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock which are currently exercisable or convertible or which are exercisable or convertible within 60 days of August 1, 2003 are deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage beneficially owned by the person or entity holding such securities but are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage beneficially owned by any other person or entity. Except as indicated by footnote, the company believes that the persons named in this table, based on information provided by these persons, have sole voting and investment power with respect to the securities indicated. Unless otherwise indicated, the address of each executive officer and director of the company is care of Casella Waste Systems, Inc., 25 Greens Hill Lane, Rutland, Vermont 05701.

The "Total Ownership of Equity Securities" column reflects each listed individual's or entity's percent beneficial ownership with respect to all voting securities of the company as of August 1, 2003. This column reflects the conversion of shares of Class B common stock and Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock into shares of Class A common stock of the company. Holders of Class B common stock are entitled to ten votes for each share of Class B common stock that they beneficially own. Each share of Class B common stock is convertible at the discretion of the holder thereof into one share of Class A common stock. Holders of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock are entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of whole shares of Class A common stock into which a share of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock is convertible as of the applicable record date. Each share of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock would be convertible into approximately 84 shares of Class A common stock as of August 1, 2003. As of August 1, 2003, a total of 22,797,282 shares of the company's Class A common stock were outstanding.

PROPOSAL 1—ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The company has three classes of directors, currently consisting of three Class I directors, two Class II directors and two Class III directors. At each annual meeting, directors are elected for a full term of three years to succeed those terms which are expiring. The terms of the three classes are staggered in a manner so that only one class is elected by stockholders annually. The two Class III directors are proposed for election this year to serve as members of the board of directors until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

The persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote at the annual meeting to elect, as Class III directors, Messrs. John W. Casella and John F. Each of the nominees has indicated his willingness to serve, if elected; however, if either nominee should be unable to serve, the person acting under the proxy may vote the proxy for a substitute nominee designated by the board of directors. The holders of Class A common stock, voting separately as a class, are entitled to elect one director. Mr. Peters, a Class II director, was nominated as the designee of the holders of Class A common stock at the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders to serve as a member of the board of directors until the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders.

Pursuant to the terms of a preferred stock purchase agreement dated as of June 28, 2000 by and among the company, funds affiliated with Berkshire Partners and other investors, such entities, and permitted transferees, voting separately as a class, are entitled to nominate one director, who is also required to be appointed to each committee of the board of directors, provided that such entities continue to hold at least 20% of the shares of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock, or shares of Class A common stock issuable upon conversion of such shares, purchased by them pursuant to the preferred stock purchase agreement. The company has agreed to use reasonable efforts to have such director nominee elected as a director of the company. Mr. Peeler, a Class I director and a member of the compensation committee, audit committee, nominations and governance committee and stock plan subcommittee of the board of directors, was nominated as the designee of the holders of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock at the 2001 annual meeting of stockholders to serve as a member of the board of directors until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders.

The employment agreements by and between the company and each of Messrs. John W. Casella and James W. Bohlig provide that each such person shall be elected as a director of the company. The company has agreed to use its best efforts to assure each such person is elected as a director of the company.

Board of Directors and Committee Meetings

The board of directors met five times, including by telephone conference, during fiscal 2003. All current directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the board of directors and the meetings of the committees on which they served held during the period that they served on the board of directors or such committees.

The board of directors has established an audit committee. The audit committee currently consists of Messrs. Callahan, Peeler and Peters, each of whom is an independent director. The audit committee held seven meetings during fiscal 2003. See "Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors."

The board of directors has also established a compensation committee. The compensation committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Chapple, Peeler and Peters, reviews executive salaries, administers any bonus, incentive compensation and stock option plans of the company, and approves the salaries and certain other benefits of the executive officers of the company. In addition, the compensation committee consults with management regarding pension and other benefit plans and compensation policies and practices of the company. The stock plan subcommittee of the compensation committee, which, as a result of Wilbur L. Ross, Jr.'s resignation from the board of directors in July 2003, currently consists solely of Mr. Peeler, grants stock options and other awards under the company's stock option plans to executive officers. The compensation committee held two meetings and the stock plan subcommittee held one meeting during fiscal 2003. The company anticipates that an additional director will be elected to the stock plan subcommittee following the annual meeting.

In November 2002, the board of directors established a nominations and governance committee. The nominations and governance committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Peeler and Peters, identifies individuals qualified to become members of the board of directors and recommends to the board of directors persons to be nominated by the board of directors for election as directors at the annual meetings of stockholders. In addition, the nominations and governance committee develops and recommends to the board of directors corporate governance principles applicable to the company and also evaluates the board of directors. The nominations and governance committee will consider director nominees recommended by stockholders. Recommendations by stockholders should be submitted in writing to the nominations and governance committee, in care of the corporate secretary of the company. The nominations and governance committee held three meetings during fiscal 2003.

Also in November 2002, the board of directors designated Mr. Peters as the "lead outside director" of the board of directors. The lead outside director chairs meetings of the company's independent directors and facilitates communications between the chairman of the board of directors and other directors. The lead outside director also works with the chairman of the board of directors in preparing agendas for each meeting of the board of directors and consults with the chairman of the board of directors on matters relating to corporate governance and board performance.

Compensation of Directors

The company reimburses non-employee directors for expenses incurred in attending board of directors and committee meetings. In addition, non-employee directors of the company currently receive $5,000 for each fiscal quarter that the non-employee director continues to serve on the board of directors, $1,500 for each meeting of the board of directors that the non-employee director attends in person and $500 for each meeting of a committee of the board of directors that the non-employee director attends in person. Each non-employee director who serves as a chairman of a committee of the board of directors also receives $3,000 for each fiscal year that the non-employee director continues to serve as chairman of each such committee.

Each non-employee director also receives an option to purchase 7,500 shares of Class A common stock under the company's Amended and Restated 1997 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan upon the non-employee director's initial election to the board of directors. In addition, each incumbent non-employee director receives an additional option to purchase 7,500 shares of Class A common stock at the time of each annual meeting of stockholders of the company. Each such option is exercisable at a price per share equal to the fair market value of the company's Class A common stock on the date of grant and vests in three equal annual installments, commencing on the first anniversary of the date of grant, provided that the non-employee director continues to serve as a member of the board of directors at the respective vesting date.

In addition to the compensation described above, Mr. Peters receives $15,000 for each fiscal quarter that he serves as the lead outside director of the company.

The company has also entered into or engaged in certain transactions with directors of the company or affiliates of directors of the company. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions."

During fiscal 2003, the members of the compensation committee of the board of directors were Messrs. Chapple, George J. Mitchell, Peeler and Peters, and the members of the stock plan subcommittee of the board of directors were Messrs. Peeler, Peters and Ross. In connection with and at the time of the company's acquisition of the business of Catamount Waste Services, Inc. in June 1994, the company entered into a lease with CV Landfill, Inc., a Vermont corporation affiliated with Catamount Waste Services, Inc., pursuant to which the company agreed to lease a transfer station for a term of 10 years. CV Landfill, Inc. is owned by John F. Chapple III, who became a director of the company at the time of the acquisition of the business of Catamount Waste Services, Inc. Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely on its review of copies of reports filed by reporting persons pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, or written representations from reporting persons that no Form 5 filing was required for such person, the company believes that, during fiscal 2003, all filings required to be made by reporting persons of the company were timely made in accordance with the requirements of the Exchange Act other than the late filing of a Form 4 by each of Messrs. John W. Casella and Douglas R. Casella relating to their respective gifts of Class A common stock, a Form 4 by Mr. Chapple relating to the sale of call options to purchase shares of Class A common stock, and a Form 4 by Mr. James M. Hiltner relating to a purchase of shares of Class A common stock.

These numbers are calculated based on rules promulgated by the SEC and do not reflect the company's estimate of future stock price growth. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercise and the Class A common stock holdings are dependent on the timing of the exercise and the future performance of the Class A common stock. There can be no assurance that the rates of appreciation assumed in this table can be achieved or that the amounts reflected will be received by the individual.

Employment Agreements

Each of Messrs. John Casella, Bohlig, Leonard and Norris has an employment agreement with the company. The employment agreements of each of Mr. Casella and Mr. Bohlig commenced as of December 14, 1999. Mr. Leonard's employment agreement commenced as of June 18, 2001 and Mr. Norris' employment agreement commenced as of July 20, 2001. Each agreement is for a term of three years from the respective commencement date and is automatically renewable for additional terms of one year unless terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the agreement. During the three years, Messrs. Casella, Bohlig, Leonard and Norris are each entitled to a specified annual base salary and a cash bonus in an amount, if any, determined by the compensation committee of the company's board of directors prior to the conclusion of each fiscal year, and to a severance package upon the termination of their respective employment. Each of Messrs. Casella, Bohlig, Leonard and Norris is also entitled to a bonus consisting of stock options, in an amount, if any, determined by the stock plan subcommittee of the board of directors, prior to the conclusion of each fiscal year during the term of their respective agreements. In addition, the company has agreed to use its best efforts to assure that Mr. Casella and Mr. Bohlig are each elected as a director of the company. Pursuant to the terms of their agreements, in fiscal 2003, the annual base salary of Mr. Casella was $302,610, the annual base salary of Mr. Bohlig was $288,750, the annual base salary of Mr. Norris was $241,500 and the annual base salary of Mr. Leonard was $252,000.

Messrs. Casella, Bohlig, Leonard and Norris each also agreed not to compete with the company for a period of two years after the termination of their respective employment terms within 300 miles of any facility operated by the company during such term of employment. In addition, Messrs. Casella, Bohlig, Leonard and Norris each also agreed that during this two year period, they will not solicit the company's customers or accounts or other employees. In the event that Mr. Casella, Mr. Bohlig, Mr. Leonard or

Mr. Norris were to terminate their employment voluntarily and as a result are not entitled to severance, the non-compete would not apply unless the company continues to pay their base salary.

In the event of a termination of either of Mr. Casella's or Mr. Bohlig's employment without cause, the company will be required to pay the respective officer an amount equal to (a) three times the sum of (i) his highest base salary paid under the agreement and (ii) the higher of the most recent bonus paid to such officer under his agreement or 50% of his base salary immediately prior to such termination; plus (b) an amount in cash equal to the value of any accrued but unpaid base salary, bonus and vacation pay. In addition, the officer will continue to receive healthcare and other benefits for a period of three years from the date of termination. In the event that Mr. Casella or Mr. Bohlig terminates his employment with the company following a change of control of the company in which specified events occur which affect the terms of the respective officer's employment, he will receive the payments described in the preceding two sentences plus an additional payment intended to compensate him for taxes payable in connection with the severance payments.

In the event of a termination of Mr. Norris' employment without cause, the company will be required to pay him an amount equal to (a) (i) during the first two years of the initial employment term, two times the sum of his highest base salary paid under the agreement, or (ii) the third year of the initial employment term and any successive term thereafter, one times his highest base salary paid under the agreement; plus (b) the higher of the most recent bonus paid to him under his agreement or 50% of his base salary immediately prior to such termination; plus (c) an amount in cash equal to the value of any accrued but unpaid base salary, bonus and vacation pay.

In the event of a termination of Mr. Leonard's employment without cause, the company will be required to pay him an amount equal to (a) (i) during the first two years of the initial employment term, two times the sum of his highest base salary paid under the agreement, or (ii) during the third year of the initial employment term and any successive terms thereafter, one times the sum of his highest base salary under the agreement; plus (b) an amount in cash equal to the value of any accrued but unpaid base salary, bonus and vacation pay.

Any stock options issued by the company to either Mr. Leonard or Mr. Norris would become exercisable in full upon their respective termination without cause. In addition, they will continue to receive healthcare and other benefits for a period of (a) two years from the date of termination if the termination occurs during the first two years of the initial employment term or (b) one year from the date of termination if the termination occurs during the third year of the initial term or any successive term thereafter. In the event that Mr. Leonard or Mr. Norris terminates their respective employment with the company following a change of control of the company in which specified events occur which affect the terms of such officer's employment, such officer will receive his respective severance and payments described above, other than acceleration of vesting of his stock options, plus an additional payment intended to compensate him for taxes payable in connection with the severance payments.

For purposes of each agreement discussed above, "cause" means the discharge of the employee resulting from (a) a conviction of a crime involving the company; (b) an act or omission which has a material adverse effect on the company; (c) fraud, misappropriation or embezzlement; or (d) the breach of confidentiality, non-competition or other material obligations by the employee.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The compensation committee of the board of directors, including its stock plan subcommittee, reviews executive salaries, administers bonus, incentive compensation and stock option plans of the company, and approves the salaries and other benefits of the executive officers of the company. In addition, the compensation committee consults with the company's management regarding pension and other benefit plans and compensation policies and practices of the company.

The compensation committee, including its stock plan subcommittee, seeks to achieve three broad goals in connection with the company's executive compensation program. First, the compensation committee seeks to reward executives for the achievement of business objectives of the company. Second, the executive compensation program is intended to provide executives with equity incentives so as to link a portion of the executive's compensation with the future performance of Class A common stock of the company. Finally, the compensation committee structures its executive compensation program so as to enable it to attract and retain key executives.

To achieve these objectives, the compensation program for the company's executive officers consists principally of three elements: base salary, cash bonuses and long-term incentive compensation in the form of participation in the company's stock option plans.

To ensure retention of qualified management, the company has entered into employment agreements with each of its executive officers. The employment agreements establish minimum annual base salary amounts that the compensation committee may increase. In determining base salaries for the executive officers, the compensation committee evaluates the executive's experience, length of service, historical salary level, responsibilities of the specific executive position and performance of the executive. In addition, the compensation committee assesses the company's financial and operational performance for the prior fiscal year and the competitiveness of the company's executive compensation program and executive compensation packages of comparable companies. The compensation committee also considers general economic conditions and forecasts in evaluating the executive's performance.

The compensation committee also considers the payment of cash bonuses as part of its compensation program. Annual cash bonuses reflect a policy of requiring a certain level of company financial and operational performance for the prior fiscal year before any cash bonuses are earned by executive officers. In general, the compensation committee has tied potential bonus compensation to performance factors, including the executive officer's efforts and contributions towards obtaining company objectives and the company's overall growth. The employment agreements of each of the executive officers provides that each of these employees will be eligible to receive a bonus consisting of cash, stock options or a combination thereof in an amount, if any, to be determined by the compensation committee prior to the conclusion of each fiscal year. For fiscal 2003, the compensation committee determined to pay cash bonuses of $108,032 to Mr. Casella, $103,084 to Mr. Bohlig, $86,216 to Mr. Norris and $89,964 to Mr. Leonard. In its determination to approve these bonuses, the compensation committee specifically considered the company's success in acquiring additional landfill disposal capacity and restructuring its outstanding debt and borrowing capacity by issuing senior subordinated notes and obtaining a new credit facility in fiscal 2003. The compensation of the chief executive officer is based upon the same elements and measures of performance as is the compensation for the company's other executive officers.

The executive officers are also eligible to receive stock options under the company's stock option plans. The stock plan subcommittee grants stock options and other awards under the company's stock option plans to the executive officers. See "Report of the Stock Plan Subcommittee on Executive Compensation."

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1,000,000 paid to its chief executive officer and its four other most highly compensated executive officers. Certain compensation, including qualified performance-based compensation, may be deducted if certain requirements are met. The compensation committee, including its stock plan subcommittee, reviews the potential effect of Section 162(m) periodically and uses its judgment to authorize compensation payments that may be in excess of the limit when it either believes such payments are appropriate and in the best interests of the company's employees. Based on the compensation paid to the chief executive officer and the other executive officers of the company in fiscal 2003, it does not appear that the Section 162(m) limitation will have a significant impact on the company in the near term.

Report of the Stock Plan Subcommittee on Executive Compensation

The stock plan subcommittee of the compensation committee grants stock options and other awards under the company's stock option plans to the company's executive officers.

The use of stock options is a significant element of the compensation packages of the company's executive officers. The grant of new stock options depends upon a number of factors, including the executives' current stock and stock option holdings and such other factors as the stock plan subcommittee deems relevant. In fiscal 2003, Mr. Casella, Mr. Bohlig, Mr. Leonard and Mr. Norris were each granted 30,000 stock options. In granting these stock options, the stock plan subcommittee considered the company's achievement of financial and operational performance goals as well as each executive officer's efforts in implementing the company's strategic realignment program, including the divestiture of non-core assets, and reducing the company's corporate debt in fiscal 2002. When granting stock options, it has been the policy of the stock plan subcommittee to set the exercise price of the stock options at a price that is at least equal to the fair market value of a share of Class A common stock of the company as of the date of grant.

Casella, vice chairman of the board of directors of the company, to provide construction services for the company, including construction, closure and capping activities at the company's landfills. In fiscal 2003, the company paid Casella Construction, Inc. an aggregate of $1,497,000. The company is party to two real estate leases with Casella Associates, a Vermont partnership owned by John W. Casella and Douglas R. Casella, relating to facilities occupied by the company. The leases, relating to the company's corporate headquarters in Rutland, Vermont and its Montpelier, Vermont facility, were renewed in May 2003 and provide for aggregate monthly payments of $21,200 and expire in April 2008. These leases have been classified by the company as capital leases for financial reporting purposes. In November 1997, the lease relating to the company's corporate headquarters in Rutland, Vermont was amended to allow the company to upgrade and make capital improvements to the premises at an estimated cost of $500,000, to be paid by the company. At the time the improvements were made, Casella Associates was granted an option to purchase the improvements at cost. Casella Associates exercised its option in December 2002.

From 1977 to 1992, the company operated an unlined landfill located in Whitehall, New York owned by Bola, Inc., a corporation owned by John W. Casella and Douglas R. Casella which operated as a single-purpose real estate holding company. The company paid the cost of closing this landfill in 1992, and has agreed to pay all post-closure obligations. Since the beginning of fiscal 2003, the company has paid an aggregate of $8,000 pursuant to this arrangement. As of April 30, 2003, the company had accrued $76,000 for costs related to those post-closure obligations.

In connection with and at the time of the company's acquisition of the business of Catamount Waste Services, Inc. in June 1994, the company entered into a lease with CV Landfill, Inc., a Vermont corporation affiliated with Catamount Waste Services, Inc., pursuant to which the company agreed to lease a transfer station for a term of 10 years. CV Landfill, Inc. is owned by John F. Chapple III, who became a director of the company at the time of the acquisition of the business of Catamount Waste Services, Inc. Pursuant to the lease agreement, the company paid monthly rent for the first five years at a rate of $5.00 per ton of waste disposed of at the transfer station, with a minimum rent of $6,650 per month. Since June 1999, the company has been required to pay monthly rent at a rate of $2.00 per ton, with a minimum rent of $2,500 per month. From May 1, 2003 (the beginning of fiscal 2004) to August 1, 2003, the company paid CV Landfill, Inc. an aggregate of $14,000.

The company believes that each transaction described above was on terms at least as favorable to the company as those the company would expect to negotiate with disinterested third parties.

On March 2, 2000, the company made a loan to Mr. Bohlig, the company's president and chief operating officer and a director of the company. The terms of the loan provide for the payment of accrued interest and principal upon demand. Interest on the loan accrues monthly at the prime rate (4.25% annually at April 30, 2003) and is adjusted on a monthly basis. The company's loan to Mr. Bohlig was in the aggregate principal amount of $400,000. As of August 1, 2003, $400,000 was outstanding under this loan, which was the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding under this loan since the beginning of fiscal 2003. On November 28, 2000, the company made an additional loan to

Mr. Bohlig. The terms of this loan are identical to the terms of the earlier loan. This loan to Mr. Bohlig was in the aggregate principal amount of $616,000. As of August 1, 2003, $616,000 was outstanding under this loan, which was the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding under this loan since the beginning of fiscal 2003.

The company has also entered into employment agreements with each of the executive officers of the company. See "Employment Agreements."

Report of the Audit Committee of the Board Of Directors

The audit committee of the company's board of directors is currently composed of three members and acts under a written charter first adopted and approved on June 12, 2000. A copy of this charter is attached as an exhibit to the company's proxy statement for the 2001 annual meeting of stockholders, as filed with the SEC on August 31, 2001. Each member of the audit committee is an independent director, as defined by its charter and the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market as currently in effect. The audit committee held seven meetings during fiscal 2003.

The audit committee reviewed the company's audited financial statements for fiscal 2003 and its re-audited financial statements for fiscal 2001 and discussed these financial statements with the company's management. The audit committee also reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements and the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards 61 (Codification of Statements on Accounting Standards, AU §380) with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the company's independent auditors.

The company's independent auditors also provided the audit committee with the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). In addition, the audit committee discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP their independence from the company.

Based on the company's discussions with management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, and its review of the representations and information provided by management and information provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2003 for filing with the SEC.

Stock Performance Graph

The stock performance graph below compares the percentage change in cumulative stockholder return on Class A common stock for the period from April 30, 1998 through April 30, 2003, with the cumulative total return on The Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S. & Foreign) Index and the company's Industry Peer Group on The Nasdaq Stock Market. The stock performance graph assumes the investment on April 30, 1998 of $100.00 in Class A common stock of the company, at the closing price on such date, in The Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S. & Foreign) Index, in the company's New Industry Peer Group and in the company's Old Industry Peer Group, and that dividends are reinvested. PROPOSAL 2—RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The audit committee of the board of directors of the company annually considers and recommends to the board of directors the selection of the company's independent public accountants. As recommended by the audit committee, the board of directors on May 20, 2002 decided to no longer engage its independent auditors, Arthur Andersen LLP, and engaged KPMG LLP to serve as the company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2003 and to audit the company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2002. The audit committee's recommendation to engage KPMG LLP was based on the assumption that certain individuals from Arthur Andersen LLP's Boston, Massachusetts office, including the team auditing the company, would join KPMG LLP. That event did not occur. As a result, the audit committee subsequently reconsidered its recommendation and, as recommended by the audit committee, the board of directors on June 13, 2002 decided no longer to engage KPMG LLP and engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2003 and to audit the company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2002, which engagement was ratified by the company's stockholders. KPMG LLP did not audit the company's financial statements.

The board of directors has selected PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors of the company for the current fiscal year, fiscal 2004, subject to ratification by the company's stockholders at the annual meeting. OTHER MATTERS

The board of directors knows of no other business which will be presented for consideration at the annual meeting other than that described above. However, if any other business should come before the annual meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote, or otherwise act, in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

The company will bear the costs of soliciting proxies.
