Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Casella Waste Systems, Inc. (“Casella”) has engaged Banc of America Securities LLC (“BAS”) as Sole Lead Arranger and Book Manager to arrange an amendment and increase to its existing $450.0 million senior secured credit facilities (the “Facilities”). BAS is commencing the marketing process for such amendment and increase, but no amendment or increase have yet been completed and there can be no assurance that such completion will occur.

The Amendment is expected to consist of the following two separate votes:

1) 51% vote required from all existing lenders to permit the following changes:

- Resetting of the Accordion Feature
- Change to the definition of “Consolidated Adjusted Net Income” to allow for the exclusion of certain cash and non cash charges
- Change to the definition of “Consolidated Net Worth” to allow for the changes made to the Consolidated Adjusted Net Income definition
- Change to the leverage requirement to allow for the redemption of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock on its redemption date
- Amendment to the Interest Coverage Covenant
- Amendment to the Total Leverage Covenant
- Amendment to the Senior Leverage Covenant

2) 100% vote required from the existing revolver lenders only to permit the following change:

- Amendment to the Revolver Pricing Grid

The increase is expected to consist of a $75.0 million incremental Term Loan B. Proceeds from the incremental Term Loan B are expected to be used initially to reduce borrowings under the Revolver and provide the Company with additional flexibility to redeem the Series A Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock, which are expected to be redeemed on August 11, 2007. Bank of America, N.A. (“Bank of America”) will serve as the Administrative Agent for the Term Loan B.
