Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 12, 2005, the Zoning Board of Appeals of the Town of Hardwick, Massachusetts voted to uphold the decision of the Hardwick Zoning Enforcement Officer in finding that Lot 1 of the Hardwick Landfill (which includes a portion of the current Phase II operating area) is in violation of the Hardwick Zoning Bylaws and is not a protected grandfathered use. The Company expects to file an appeal of the ruling in the Massachusetts Land Court.

The decision does not affect the Company's operations on the other portions of the Hardwick Landfill, which, at current operating levels, represents approximately four to five years of remaining capacity. Pending the appeal, the Company will meet with the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection for purposes of developing a plan to suspend landfilling activities on the affected portion of the site in accordance with the ZBA decision.

In June 2005, Hardwick approved a Host Community Agreement with the Company, which provides the Town with enhanced benefits upon receipt of local approvals to rezone the Landfill. The Company expects to submit a rezoning application in a manner consistent with the Host Community Agreement in an effort to maximize benefits to the Town and at the same time resolve the current zoning.
